

Questions for Reflection

1 How do you think you will know when the person you are caring for is near the end of their life?

2 How can you tell when the person you are providing care for is feeling pain or discomfort?
How will you share this knowledge with care providers?

3 How can you provide comfort and pleasure to the person you are caring for?

4 Who do you need to discuss the information from this session with?
