

Questions for Reflection

1 What are the things you most fondly remember about your family member?

2 What have you learned in your role as a care partner of someone with dementia?

3 What would you want to tell someone who is just starting their journey as a care partner?

4 What can you do to celebrate the life of the person you've been caring for?
